

Providing Students an Open Line of Communication Via Our New Help Center

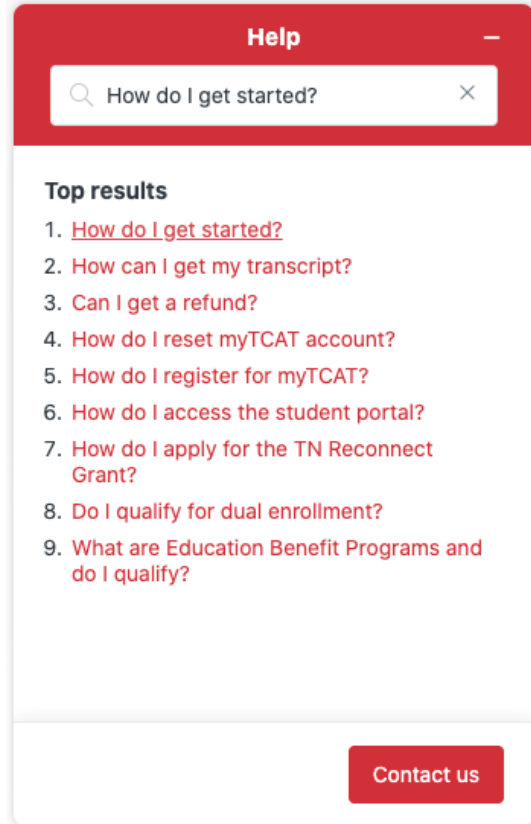

TCAT Shelbyville is committed to providing students with a flexible support solution that's easy to use. We are announcing the implementation of Zendesk to bring you faster responses to your questions. With Zendesk, you can interact and communicate with staff on the support channels you prefer—like email, chat, and phone—and easily continue the dialogue across every channel.

Accessing the new support solution is easy, on any page you visit just click on the  to start finding your answers or visit <https://tcatshelbyville.zendesk.com> to access the Help Center directly.

1. Start by asking your question.

2. Then select from the list of articles to get more information.

3. If you need additional assistance, you can reach out in several ways to staff directly. Including Phone, Chat, and Email.
